

YEOVIL UNITED REFORMED CHURCH

News for Sunday 14th May 2017

Welcome to our praise service led by the Elders.

A warm welcome to Ian Bramley and Ali Berry from Street Pastors.

Bible readings: Matthew 8: 23-27 (GNB: p11) & Psalm 66 (GNB: p574).

In our prayers we remember Winifred Proud and her family, following the death on 23rd April of her husband Gordon, a former church secretary. Gordon was 87. We also remember Thelma Parish, Dennis & Rosemary Pearce, Gerry & Trish Miles, Joan Denman, Peggy Harris and family, Sandie Porter and family, Eileen Bonnett, Noel Frost, Phyllis Hicks, Diane Wall and others known to us personally.

Outcome of Special Church Meeting

Wednesday's church meeting voted:

- to close Yeovil United Reformed Church on 10th June
- to transfer members on the roll on 10th June to Templecombe URC.

Church Closure - Fri 9th June 10 am – 4 pm

The church will be open for an exhibition marking the life of the Princes Street. Helen Nichols would be grateful for the loan of photographs and mementos to add to those already available, stretching over a hundred years.

Final Service - Saturday 10th June at 2.30 pm

A closing service for Yeovil United Reformed Church will be led by our Synod Moderator, the Reverend Ruth Whitehead, and our minister, the Reverend Stella Hayton.

Somerset Area Gathering - Sunday 9th July – at Middle Lambrook

You are invited to spend Sunday afternoon with folk from other URCs in Somerset at 3.30 for 4 pm start. The title is Varieties of spiritual exercise. Bring & share tea. Closing worship at 6 pm.
